The Nez Perces Indians for Peace

We find the following interesting items in the correspondence of the Sacramento Union, dated Idaho City, Boise Basin Mountains, Nez Perces Reserve Aug 27 1861

"An Indian messenger sent express to the lodges of the Nez Perces tribe to come home, has come in He brings the important tidings that the buffalo or hunting party (equivalent to the war party that passed by here a few days ago, had halted three days journey from here, at the foot of the mountains in the Bitter Root valley, for the purpose of holding a council to consider and decide on the question, "what shall be done with the white men's scalps in and around Idaho City?" This is a somewhat interesting subject It appears that they were met at the foot of the mountains by Lippe alahano-kan pooh, or the 'Eagle from the Light,' a Nez Perces Chief, always hostile to the whites, and who has for some time been sojourning among the congenial Snakes In the Grand Council he proposed that the Nez Perces bury the hatchet as regards the Shoshones, and in conjunction with them fall upon and exterminate the whites This course he enforced with all the natural shrewdness and power which those who know him say he possessed. Kool-kool sneny, another Chief hitherto unfriendly to the white men, and one of much influence with the nation, replied with a decided negative. "No," said he, "my eyes are now open. It is true the white men dig up the gold, but for ages it has lain under our feet and we have not discovered it was there The white men dig up and take the gold, what then? We get some of it They buy our beef and pay for it with some of this gold. Our buffalo robes they exchange for gold or blankets I am an Indian, and don't know how to farm, but I am going to learn from my friend Tise-use (a white man)—they will buy the corn and other things that I shall grow on my farm No! I have so far been for war, but now my eyes are open, I say peace" Another chief arose and said, "You council us to join the Snakes against the white men What have the Snakes ever done for us? I will tell you what they have done for me When I was so high (suiting the action to the word) they slew my father Since then many of my near relatives have found graves at their bloody hands. You all know how many of our brothers have fallen by them Make peace with the Snakes to join them in warring on the whites! Never!" "Look at these," said another (pointing to the gaily striped blankets hanging from his shoulder, and lately distributed to him at the Council at Lapwai) "look at these, the white men gave us these for nothing What did the Snakes ever give us? Nothing They have nothing to give us but war, and of that they have always given us plenty The white men have never hurt a hair of our heads; they have ever done us good I am for friendship with the white man" And so for three days and nights the council ran The result was that "Eagle from the Sun" gathered together his lodges—abjured his nation forever as slaves to the whites, and took his departure for the Shoshones, with whom in the future he intends to cast in his lot. This is a very important and definite conclusion It is one arrived at in view of the facts and in a full representation of the whole nation. It settles, probably forever, the policy of the Nez Perces and the footing of the whites on the Reservation The permission to mine carries with it the incidental one to build, and the right to do whatever may be conducive to the convenience of mining The results of this Council are of great weight and authority for this reason—they are the pure and spontaneous fruits of the Nez Perces councils unaided, unprompted and uninfluenced by white men, either in or out of authority They will therefore (with the above exception) be universally accepted by, and be acceptable to, the nine thousand souls of whom the nation is composed We fear however, for those who have crossed the mountains, and who on Butter Creek the Salmon and Umatilla rivers, are out prospecting in the country of the Snakes

Mr Everett on the Crisis

In closing some pleasant remarks at the recent commencement exercises at Dartmouth College, Edward Everett said

In reference to our present national crisis, I would remark that it is not the most unbroken prosperity that is most favorable to the development of the national character The late disasters to our arms need cast no gloom of despondency over the hopes of final success. English people often think it strange that we erected Bunker Hill monument, because they say we were defeated in the battle but when General Washington learned how bravely the new militia had met the advance of the British regulars, he remarked that "the cause of the country is safe." (Great applause.) The speaker then referred to the many defeats which were our lot in the revolutionary struggle, and to several where public clamor hurried on the army before its preparations were completed. Let no patriot be discouraged in the present conflict. We have an executive at the head of the government, whose hands are upheld by twenty millions of people, with profusion of money in sums far exceeding what is required; with thousands on every side seeking not who shall stay at home, but who shall go forth to defend the liberties of the common country. In view of this I would say that final defeat is utterly impossible (Loud cheers and rising of the audience.)

PHELAN'S

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County A M A Blanchet, Complainant vs Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant You are hereby notified that A. M. A Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint, and commenced a suit against you in which he claims that on the tenth day of June A. D eighteen hundred and fifty-seven you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent per month, and at the same time made acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three in Couch's addition to the City of Portland in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the two tenths of September, A D eighteen hundred and fifty nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November A D 1861 and then and there answer the said bill of complaint the same will be taken as confessed and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A D 1861

the Dairy, and other articles.

There will be an exhibition of the gaits of Horses—walking, pacing and trotting. It is designed that there shall be a Plowing Match, and an exhibition of Equestrianship by Ladies and Gentlemen.

ADMISSION TO THE FAIR GROUNDS—MEMBERSHIP—ENTRIES OF ARTICLES.

A Membership Ticket, costing $1, will admit to the Grounds a man and his wife, and all children under sixteen years of age.—Tickets for one admission, 50 cents. These tickets can be bought at the Treasurer's office, or at the Gate.

Persons who enter animals or articles for exhibition, must become members of the Society by purchasing a Membership ticket and must pay ten per cent. on the amount of the premiums for which they compete. This rule applies in all cases of money premiums, except those under the numbers 42, 43, and 46 of the Premium List, (Ladies' Department.)

All articles must be entered for exhibition by 4 o'clock P. M., on the first day of the Fair.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Hay and straw will be furnished gratis for stock. Grain will be sold at current prices An Address will be delivered at the Fair, and every effort will be made by the Officers for the satisfaction of visitors—to make this Fair a great gala day for the farmers of Oregon. The Officers of the Society will labor to make the occasion one which shall demonstrate as well the moral tendencies of agricultural fairs, as to add to the social pleasures and improvement of our people—having a steady aim, at all times, to advance the great interests of Agriculture.

INVOCATION TO THE FARMERS AND PEOPLE OF OREGON.

Farmers of Oregon! Mechanics of Oregon! Citizens of every class and profession! We ask you to patronize, by your presence and by the exhibition of articles for competition and premium, our FIRST STATE FAIR. Let it be a proud Fair for Oregon! Let us make a glorious beginning, to be followed up and improved on hereafter.

Visitors, competitors for premiums superintendents of classes, and other officers, are referred to the Premium List of the Society for much other important information.

The Advertiser has news that the St. Louis Republican and all other anti-administration papers have been suppressed in St. Louis.—Not a word of truth in this. Only secession presses, like the Advertiser, have been suppressed there.

could not stand the pressure of his labors.—He looks pale and care-worn, but strong as if Providence supported him in time of trial, in maintaining the best government ever instituted by man.

The Investigating Committee sit with closed doors. No one knows what they are doing until an arrest is made. Faulkner our late foreign minister, was no sooner in Washington in disguise, and just ready, with important information, to step over into the enemy's camp, than his honor was perfectly thunderstruck and "insulted" by an order from the War Department for his arrest. He is now occupying quarters under the guard of the U. S. army, and under the flag which he has disgraced. Mrs. , wife of an ex-Congressman of Alabama, was arrested last evening. I am told that some arrests are expected to-night. Think of bayonets at the doors of traitors, their rooms locked, and their guilty correspondence with traitors in the hands of the committee. The duties of this committee are not confined to matters in Washington. Their views are extensive—and treasonable correspondence is in their hands, the authors of which yet sleep in safety!

A fact that might interest your people may be stated. Senator Baker after his labors in the Senate, where he secured the esteem and respect of all his colleagues, and obtained more for his State than his predecessor in all the time he had served in that body had done—is now in the field as commander of a most splendid regiment of 2,000 men. Enlistments are being made to obtain for him a force of 5,000. He has felt it his duty to give the power of his talents in the Senate to his constituents and to risk his existence in the battle field in their behalf. If he survives the trial that is to come upon him, he will again be with them. If he falls, the slanders and taunts of the Portland Advertiser will not trouble him in a soldiers' grave.

Bonds for our war scrip will be issued in six or eight weeks. I have this from authority I deem conclusive.

While I feel that great events are happening, I have an abiding conviction that the Government of the United States—notwithstanding the war made upon it by traitors in all quarters, in Oregon as well as here—will survive the fiery trials through which it is now passing—and the Union men everywhere will thank God that their sympathies, their labors, their hopes, were always against treason and its supporters.

a part of the scalp the size of a man's hand, attached, that had literally been cut from some unfortunate creature; another Chinaman had his back broken. Much sympathy was expressed for the unfortunate Chinamen, and that the Government had not a sufficient force on the ground to protect them. At the latest accounts, a numerous body of troops had been sent by Government to protect the Chinese and ensure their proper treatment.

REBEL KILLED BY A WOMAN.—The Quincy (Illinois) Herald relates as follows: A Union man by the name of Glover, residing in one of the counties west of this city, owning a number of valuable horses, and having reason to fear their appropriation to rebel uses, concluded to place them in the hands of a company of Home Guards in the neighborhood, for safekeeping. A day or two afterwards, while Glover was absent from home, a rebel called at his house to inquire for him. Mrs. Glover was in the garden, adjoining a cornfield, some distance from the house, when the rebel approached her and made several inquiries, to which she gave no satisfactory answer. He then insisted on being informed where Glover was, and, with revolver in hand, threatened instant death if not told. He also at the same time demanded of her a valuable gun owned by Glover. The two started for the house through the cornfield, and on the way Mrs. Glover succeeded, without being observed, in getting possession of a large corn knife which had been left in the field, and, watching the opportunity, took a favorable moment for striking a blow, which she did most effectually, the knife severing the skull and killing the rebel instantly.

AFFAIRS AT SPRINGFIELD, MO.—In the Southwest the situation of the country is dreadful. Devasted farms meet the eye in every direction, and almost the whole of that portion of the State has been rendered a barren waste. Two gentlemen who have just arrived here from Springfield, say that both McCulloch and Price were at that place when they left. They also report that three regiments were returning to Camp Walker, as they came on. Also that five hundred of the Texans had arrived since the battle, with six pieces of artillery. The country beyond Springfield is pretty well stripped of everything in the way of eating, about three-fourths of the wheat being already consumed. And what renders the matter worse is, many of the families who would and must get away before bleak winter comes on, cannot, in consequence of the want of wagons and teams of which they had been stripped.

JEFF. DAVIS' DEATH CONTRADICTED.—It was rumored in Sacramento on the 17th that dispatches had been received at San Francisco contradicting the report of the death of Jeff. Davis.

PROCLAMATION.—Gov. Whiteaker has issued his proclamation calling for a volunteer company of cavalry of 88 men. A. P Dennison is appointed recruiting officer, at Fort Dalles.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Henry Scott, formerly a watchman in the Penitentiary, while under the influence of whisky, Monday night, entered the house of Mr. Severson, in the upper part of the city, and amused himself by breaking the furniture, and smashing things generally. Leaving there, he passed Waterman's grocery store, and broke in a window sash, as he went by. His fun was suddenly stopped by the appearance of an officer, who took him to the lock-up. Yesterday he was taken before Judge Caky, who imposed a fine of fifty dollars and costs, and sent him to jail for twenty days.

SUIT COMMENCED.—Chas. Edwards, A. Cross, F. A. Farnsworth, and Wm. Metzgar, Columbia River Bar Pilots, commenced suit yesterday, in the Circuit Court of Multnomah County, against the steamship Cortes, to recover pilotage.

CAPTURED.—An Indian convict, sentenced from Yamhill County one year for larceny, made his escape on Monday, from a brickyard, where he had been at work. It is said that the guard shot at him twice, and knocked him down with an axe-handle, and the fellow got away after all.

NEW COAL (LIGNITE) MINES.—While some men were digging a well, at Astoria, they found coal about forty feet below the surface. Parties immediately went out into the hills, back of town, to discover the lead.

The Advertiser insists upon it that the republicans are responsible for the refusal of the Southern Senators to vote for the Crittenden compromise.

The Advertiser says that a federal officer while looking on the scenes of carnage on the battle ground at Manassas, asked himself, "What is this for?" Had the editor of the Advertiser been present, he could have answered: "The South has forced this war upon the North for the purpose of establishing a republic based on human slavery," and that answer would have been true.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Record is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention, of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. Laws of the United States

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[Public—No. 14.]

AN ACT in addition to the "Act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty second, eighteen hundred and sixty one

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be and he is hereby authorized to accept the services of volunteers, either as cavalry, infantry, or artillery, in such numbers as the exigencies of the public service may in his opinion demand, to be organized as authorized by the act of the twenty-second of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one Provided, That the number of troops hereby authorized shall not exceed five hundred thousand

Sec. 2 And be it further enacted, That the volunteers authorized by this act shall be armed as the President may direct they shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and shall be upon the footing, in all respects, with similar corps of the United States army, and shall be mustered into the service for "during the war"

Sec 3. And be it further enacted, That the President shall be authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the command of the volunteer forces, such number of major generals and of brigadier generals as may in his judgement be required for their organization.

Approved, July 25, 1861.

[Public—No. 15.]

AN ACT to refund duties on arms imported by States

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized to refund, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the duties paid on arms imported by States, under the conditions and subject to the limitations of this act approved the tenth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act to refund and remit the duties on arms imported by States."

Approved, July 25, 1861.

[Public—No. 16.]

AN ACT for the organization of the Marine Corps.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, from and after the passage of this act, the United States Marine Corps shall consist of the following officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, viz: One colonel commandant, one colonel, two lieutenant colonels, four majors, one adjutant and inspector, one paymaster, one quartermaster, two assistant quartermasters, twenty captains, thirty first lieutenants, thirty second lieutenants, one sergeant-major, one quartermaster sergeant, one drum-major, one principal musician, two hundred sergeants, two hundred and twenty corporals, thirty musicians for band, sixty drummers, sixty fifers, and twenty five hundred privates.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the commissions of the officers now in the marine corps shall not be vacated by this act, and that the President of the United States may, during the recess of the Senate, first by promotions, and then by selections, appoint the officers hereby authorized, which appointments shall be submitted to the Senate, at their next session, for their advice and consent.

Sec. 3 And be it further enacted, That the appointment of commissioned officers to be made under the provisions of this act shall be persons between the ages of twenty and twenty five years, and shall be subjected, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, to an examination as to their qualifications for the service to which they are to be appointed

[Public—No 18.]

AN ACT to indemnify the States for expenses incurred by them in defence of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby directed, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay to the Governor of any State, or to his duly authorized agents, the costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred by such State for enrolling, subsisting, clothing, supplying, arming, equipping, paying, and transporting its troops employed in aiding to suppress the present insurrection against the United States, to be settled upon proper vouchers, to be filed and passed upon by the proper accounting officers of the Treasury. [Approved, July 27, 1861.

[Public Resolution—No 2.]

A RESOLUTION relative to the exhibition of the industry of all nations to be holden in London in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-two

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be and he hereby is authorized to take such measures as shall to him seem best to facilitate a proper representation of the industrial interests of the United States at the exhibition of the industry of all nations to be holden at London in the year eighteen hundred and sixty two; and the sum of two thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the incidental expenses thereof
